VOL. XVIII. NO. 341.

PADUCAH, KY., WEDNESDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 17, 1906.

10 CENTS PER WEEK

MANY REGISTERED IN CITY TUESDAY

Registration Will Exceed That Of Last Year.

With Only Few Local Offices to Interest Them, Republicans Came Out.

THE TABLES FOR COMPARISON.

If the Democrats were busy the first day of registration, the Republican organization made up for lost time yesterday and got out 44 more votes than their opponents. The registration fell off from last year by 354 votes. The Democrats this year have a state primary to stimulate them, while the Republicans have not even a congressional candidate to vote for, and yet the Democratic registration fell 140.

A comparative statement for the days of each year shows how the situation stands:

	Dem.	Rep.	M.
1906	1,984	1,386	163
1905	2,124	1,626	137

Both party organizations have been hard at work, and despite tricks that were vain, notably a few illegal registrations in Glauber's precinct, the day passed quietly. In some precincts the Republican workers went home at supper time, having registered their strength.

As usual the Democrats registered a great many who will support the Republican ticket. Last year the registration showed a Democratic plurality of 598, but the majority of the Republican candidates won by pluralities ranging around 500.

Total registration was 3,533 as against 3,887 last year.

SHORTAGE IN SUBTREASURY.

St. Louis, Oct. 17.—A shortage of $61,000 was discovered in the United States subtreasury. Treasurer Atkins admits expert accountants are at work but declared he had nothing to say until the work is completed.

It is the daily average circulation of a newspaper that the shrewd advertiser investigates. "High Water" days don't count. The Sun's daily average last month was 3939.

MRS. DAVIS DIED LATE LAST NIGHT

Pneumonia Overcomes Her Remarkable Vitality.

Widow of Confederacy's Only President Passes Away Surrounded by Family.

SECOND ATTACK OF MALADY

New York, Oct. 17.—Mrs. Jefferson Davis died at 10:27 o'clock last night. Her death was due to pneumonia induced by a severe cold, which Mrs. Davis contracted upon her return from the Adirondacks where she had spent the summer.

Although grave fears were felt from the first, Mrs. Davis' wonderful vitality which brought her through a similar attack a year ago, gave hope of ultimate recovery until last night, when a decided change for the worse took place.

She rallied slightly early yesterday morning but about 8 o'clock lapsed into a state of coma. A period of unconsciousness continued to the end.

The remains of Mrs. Jefferson Davis, widow of the president of the Confederacy, will be taken to Richmond, Va., for burial. According to tentative plans the funeral party will leave New York Thursday. The funeral will be held Friday. Hundreds of messages of condolences were received today by members of the family from noted persons all over the country.

President's Condolence.

Washington, Oct. 17.—The president today sent the following message to Mrs. J. Addison Hayes, daughter of Mrs. Jefferson Davis: "Pray accept the most sincere sympathy of Mrs. Roosevelt and myself. The president also directed that a suitable floral tribute be sent from the White House conservatories for the funeral."

MASONS

OPEN SESSIONS IN MASONIC TEMPLE, LOUISVILLE.

Grand Lodge Election of Junior Warden Is Interesting Event—Murray Man.

Louisville, Oct. 17.—The one hundred and sixth session of the grand lodge of Kentucky Masons was opened with the usual impressive ceremonies at 10 o'clock yesterday at the Masonic Temple.

James Garnett, the grand master, presided, and at his side sat Samuel K. Veach, the deputy grand master, who will be elected grand master at the close of the present session. Henry P. Barret, the grand senior warden, and Virgil P. Smith, the grand junior warden, were both at their posts. According to long established custom, Mr. Barret will succeed Mr. Veach as deputy grand master, and Mr. Smith will become grand senior warden.

The great prize of the meeting is the place of grand junior warden, for this officer in due progress of promotion always becomes grand master. The field is open. Masonic law forbids canvassing for this position.

Capt. John Cowles, of Louisville; Mr. B. M. Arnett, of Nicholasville; R. R. Burnam, of Richmond, and R. S. Coleman, of Murray, are mentioned as candidates for grand junior warden.

He has been seriously ill from typhoid pneumonia and his daughter Mrs. William Hughes left yesterday for Smithland to bring him home.

A trained nurse has been telegraphed from Louisville to meet him here. Mr. Ellis has returned recently from Asheville, N. C., where he was this summer and spends much of his time.

CHILD DIES OF BROKEN HEART

Cleveland Five-Year-Old Killed By Grief for Dead Baby Sister.

Cleveland, Oct. 17.—Liza Marie Slach, the 5-year-old daughter of Albert E. Slach, died today of a broken heart. Since she had been old enough to play with dolls the little girl had longed for a baby sister. A year or so ago the stork brought a baby brother to the household, but little Liza was not satisfied. She wanted a baby sister. A few weeks ago the child's mother told her that another baby would come soon. Wednesday the stork brought a baby sister, but the child was born dead. Little Liza was grief stricken. She cried all day and night. This brought on headaches and fits of nausea. She grew weaker and today died. The coroner said that grief had killed her.

ROOT SURPRISED AT THE PROGRESS

Reports Work On The Panama Canal As He Saw It.

Secretary Shaw Is to Resign and Cortelyou Is to Take Treasury Portfolio.

GOSSIP FROM THE CAPITAL

Washington, Oct. 17.—Secretary Root, who spent two days on the isthmus of Panama on his return from his trip to South America, has written a letter to the president giving the results of his observations of the work on the canal. The amount of actual excavation done and near Culabra cut. Mr. Root says, both gratified and surprised him.

The secretary expressed the opinion that the time occupied in preparing for contracts for continuing the work has not been excessive, or that, especially in view of the fact that the work has been vigorously prosecuted in the meanwhile, there is any ground for imputing any delay whatever to the managers of the canal construction.

"The greater danger in the way of canal construction now seems to me," he says, "to be lest the really good and able men who are competent to handle it, and who can get profitable employment elsewhere, should be unwilling to continue in the services under indiscriminate misrepresentation and abuse."

Morton for Supreme Bench.

Washington Oct. 17.—It is stated today upon excellent authority that President Roosevelt will probably this week announce the appointment of Judge Horace H. Lurton, of Nashville, who now presides over the Sixth judicial circuit, to the supreme bench, to fill the vacancy to be created by the retirement of Mr. Justice Brown.

Cortelyou for Treasury.

Washington, Oct. 17.—The post says today it is able to state without qualification that Postmaster General Cortelyou will be transferred to the treasury to succeed Secretary Shaw and in due time definite official announcement to this effect will be made.

LANG PARK

IMPROVEMENTS WILL BE STARTED WITHOUT DELAY.

Idea of Having Confederate Monument for Central Figure Pre-dominates in Plans.

Having always in view the idea of making the Confederate monument the central figure in Lang Park, the board of park commissioners yesterday decided to invite bids for the work of improving the park, which will be started without further delay.

The general plan contemplates the elevation of the center of the park by sodding, producing a gentle slope of a few feet from the center toward the curb, and permanent walks will be laid through the grounds. Probably a cascade fountain will be constructed later on. Sidewalks will also be built around the circle.

HEARST SCARES HIS OPPONENTS

Roosevelt Aids In Stirring Up His Party.

Result Will Be That Active Measures Will Be Adopted by Managers of Hughes.

IS WHAT COMMITTEE NEEDED.

New York, Oct. 17.—Probably the best thing that could have happened to Mr. Hughes has been the sudden awakening of the people at the Republican headquarters to the fact that Hearst is not as easy a man to beat as they believed him to be.

President Roosevelt is partially responsible for the sudden change of line. He has sent a message over here within the last day or two to the effect that his information was that Hearst was making more headway throughout the state as well as in New York City than Chairman Woodruff and his assistants on the state central committee seemed to be aware of.

As a result of the scare which has been opportunely "thrown into" the Republican managers by the president and other shrewd observers, extraordinary efforts are now being made to bring out the full Republican strength all over the state. It is generally the case in an off year that there is a shrinkage in the registration of about 100,000 as compared with that during a presidential year.

SIX GROUNDS

FOR DIVORCE TO BE RECOMMENDED BY COMMITTEE.

Reports to the Divorce Congress Which Meets at Philadelphia Next Month.

Columbus, Ohio, Oct. 17.—When the divorce congress meets in Philadelphia next month the committee appointed to draft new and uniform laws will recommend that applicants for divorce be compelled to wait one year before a decree shall become effective, and then only after it has been made permanent. Where collusion is proved the committee urges that a divorce shall be denied. To obtain a divorce six causes are recognized: Adultery, bigamy, at the suit of the innocent and injured party; conviction and sentence for a crime followed by a continuous two years' imprisonment; extreme cruelty. This is defined as being such as to endanger the life or health of the other party, or such indignities to the person as to render the conditions to the other party intolerable and life burdensome; wilful desertion for two years; habitual drunkenness for two years.

WIFE WAITS AS HUSBAND FLEE

Patient Woman Watches Many Hours—Man Comes Not.

Canton, Oct. 17.—A woman who said she was Mrs. Emma Hahn of Greensburg, displayed remarkable patience during a visit to this city with her husband Saturday. She said her husband tied their horse early in the morning, telling her he would be back soon. She sat in the buggy and waited his coming. At midnight officers questioned her, but she refused to leave, thinking her husband would come. She waited until 5 o'clock yesterday morning, when she finally gave up and started home alone. Her husband has not been found.

WEATHER.—Cloudy with occasional showers tonight or Thursday. The highest temperature reached yesterday was 74 and the lowest today was 56.

BATTLE ROYAL ON FOR I. C. CONTROL

Stuyvesant Fish And Harriman Interests Clash.

President Was Closely With Advisers Until After Midnight Last Night.

WHO HOLDS THE MOST STOCK?

Chicago, Ill., Oct. 17.—President Stuyvesant Fish of the Illinois Central, was in his private office at the Park Row depot until long after midnight. Closely with him were J. B. Hill, of New York, his attorney, and officials connected with the Illinois Central auditing department.

Fish, according to the Tribune, was laying his plans for a battle royal which will be brought out today at the annual meeting of the stock holders of the Illinois Central railroad.

H. H. Harriman and a party of financial friends will arrive this morning. They are coming to wage the fight against Fish for control of the Illinois Central.

Harriman Makes Strong Fight.

For a year it has been known that Harriman and his allies have been seeking control of this property. There are 950,040 shares of stock, representing a capitalization of $95,000,400 entitled to vote. The side controlling 475,021 shares will win. It has been assumed that Harriman controls only one-fifth of the total shares but information brought to Chicago yesterday said that he has had the banking firm of Kuhn-Loeb & company working for and with him for some time, and that every share of stock and proxy that could be bought or borrowed had been secured. Fish is confident that Harriman's plans will fail.

CITIZEN OF PADUCAH.

Sergeant Blake Will Vote Here This Fall.

Sergeant Blake, of the local army recruiting station, is now a citizen of Paducah, Ky. Yesterday he registered and will vote, at least in the senatorial race, November 6. Sergeant Blake has been here six months the required time. An ardent admirer of one of the senatorial candidates suggested that he could register, and being strongly inclined in the race himself, he did so. In some states a soldier cannot vote, in others he can vote without any qualifications. In Kentucky he can vote after a six months' residence in the state and city.

PYTHIANS.

Two Thousand Strong in Parade at Biennial Encampment.

New Orleans, Oct. 17.—More than 2,000 uniformed Pythians, many of them mounted, paraded in military formation today in honor of the biennial encampment which began yesterday. About 20,000 visitors saw the pageant. The supreme lodge of the Knights of Pythias held its first business session today. Tonight was held a contest of the companies of the uniform rank for the exemplification of the ritual.

FIRE IN CLOSET.

Causes Serious Damage to Residence of Dan Howell.

Fire broke out in the residence of Dan Howell, 1225 Hampton avenue, last night about 9:30 o'clock while the family was away and damage of $100 covered by insurance was done. The blaze was discovered by a pedestrian. It originated in a closet from an unknown cause, and the No. 3 company had little trouble in extinguishing it. Several garments were burned with a lot of paper.

DRASTIC MEASURES.

President Orders That Negro Troops Must Name Brownsville Rioters.

El Paso, T. T., Oct. 17.—It became known here today that Inspector General Garlington, of the United States read an order from President Roosevelt several days ago to the members of the battalion of the Twenty-fifth regiment infantry (colored) here stating that the battalion must give the names of the men in the recent Brownsville, Tex. disturbance or be dishonorably discharged.

Woman's Trials.

The bitter trail in a woman's life is to be childless. Who can tell how hard the struggle may have been ere she learnt to resign herself to her lonely lot? The absence of this link to bind marital life together, the absence of this one pledge to mutual affection is a common disappointment. Many unfortunate couples become estranged thereby. Even if they do not drift apart, one may read the whole extent of their disappointment in the eyes of such a childless couple when they rest on the children of others. To them the largest family does not seem too numerous.

In many cases of barrenness or childlessness the obstacle to child-bearing is easily removed by the cure of weakness on the part of the woman. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has been the means of restoring health and fruitfulness to many a barren woman, to the great joy of the household. In other, but rare cases, the obstruction to the bearing of children has been found to be of a surgical character, but easily removable by a surgical operation at the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., over which Dr. Pierce of the "Favorite Prescription" fame presides. In all cases where children are desired and are absent, an effort should be made to find out the real cause, since it is generally so easily removed by proper treatment.

In all the various weaknesses, displacements, prolapsus, inflammation and debilitating, catarrhal drains and in all cases of nervousness and debility, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the most efficient remedy that can possibly be used. It has its credit hundreds of thousands of cures—more in fact than any other remedy put up for sale through druggists, especially for women's use. The ingredients of which the "Favorite Prescription" is composed, have received the most positive endorsement from the leading medical writers on Materia Medica of all the several schools of practice. All the ingredients are printed in plain English on the wrapper enclosing the bottle, so that any woman making use of this famous medicine may know exactly what she is taking. Dr. Pierce takes his patients into his full confidence, which he can afford to do as the formula after which the "Favorite Prescription" is made will bear the most careful examination.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are the best and safest laxative for women.

BULLET IN LUNG;
GREEN WILL DIEShot In Back By Unknown
Man Last Night.

Negro Car Cleaner of Traction Company Meets With Fatal Reception at House.

HE SAYS IT WAS UNPROVOKED

With a large caliber pistol ball lodged in his lungs Tom Green, a negro car cleaner staggered into the Paducah Traction company sheds on West Broadway, at 11:30 o'clock last night, saying that he was dying. He reeled, fell across the platform of a trailer and remained motionless. Laborers rushed to his side, carried him into the office and summoned medical assistance.

Dr. Frank Boyd found Green alive but perhaps mortally wounded. A pistol ball had entered his back just below the shoulder blade on the right side and lodged in the lung. The physician was unable to extract the bullet and had Green removed to his home on Thirteenth street, half a square north of Trimble street. It is the physician's opinion that Green will die.

Green was able to talk, and claimed an unprovoked attack was made on him by a negro. He left the car shed about 11:15 o'clock and walked across the commons from Kentucky avenue to Alice Perkins' house, back of the railroad shops. He claimed he had a message for the woman.

"I knocked," Green explained. "The door was opened and a strange negro ordered me away from the house using a vile name and I turned to go as he shot me. Green ran to the car shed.

"This statement was made to officials of the traction company and Dr. Frank Boyd. Green claimed he did nothing whatever to provoke the assault.

The police searched the woman, but she claimed she knew nothing about the matter. The name of the negro who did the shooting was not learned last night, the woman saying he was called "Pretty Boy." The police are unacquainted with such a character.

Woman Divulges Name.

This morning the Perkins woman divulged the name of "Pretty Boy." She was intoxicated last night when brought to the city hall and told several different stories about the affair, first claiming that she had been to her aunt's home and knew nothing about it. To Patrolmen Ernest Hill and Dick Wood she said the fugitive's name is Elijah Lewis. He is about 25 years old.

Police Judge E. H. Puryear issued a warrant this morning at 10 o'clock for Lewis, charging malicious shooting with intent to kill, and ordered the Perkins woman locked up for drunkenness. She was fined $1 and costs.

Why Vinol Is Better Than Any Other Remedy to Restore

Health and Strength

Vinol

WE RETURN MONEY IF IT FAILS TO GIVE SATISFACTION

W. B. McPherson, Druggist.

Because Vinol is a real Cod Liver Preparation and does not contain a single disagreeable or harmful ingredient and is not a secret formula.

Because Vinol contains all the medicinal elements—the soothing, healing, strengthening and flesh creative properties of Cod Liver Oil—but without oil or grease.

Because Vinol is deliciously palatable and agreeable under all conditions. Everybody likes it.

Because Vinol tones up the system, strengthens every organ, nerve, muscle and fibre of the whole body and thus overcomes weakness by thoroughly eradicating the cause of disease.

That's Why Vinol is altogether different and better than any other remedy for Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, and all Throat, Lung and Wasting Diseases.

That's Why Vinol Restores Health and Strength to Delicate Children, Feeble Old People, Weak and Sickly Persons, Nursing Mothers, and Convalescents.

It's Fuel that's Expensive—Not the Stove

A Cheap, putty-jointed stove will waste more than its Original Cost in Fuel every winter.

As you know, fully one-half the carbon available for heat in soft coal is gas—the entire gas supply used for fuel and illumination in many cities and towns being made from common soft coal. The ordinary stove in burning soft coal allows this gas-half of the fuel to pass up the chimney unburned, thus wasting it as a heat producer.

Cole's Original Hot Blast Stove, by means of the patented Hot Blast draft and other patented features, making air-tight joints without the use of stove putty, distills this gas from the upper surface of the coal, utilizing it as a heat producer along with the fixed carbon or coke in the coal, thus burning all the coal. This is why

Cole's Original Hot Blast

Saves the Dollars and makes a ton of common $3.00 soft coal or lignite do the work of $9.00 worth of hard coal.

Your old stove and imitation Hot Blast are not air-tight, do not save the escaping gases and do not give you a warm house at night, because they are made with putty joints. You cannot afford to say to yourself, "My old stove will have to do this winter." The old stove is eating up the price of a new stove every year. Not only that, but on top of the cost is the unsatisfactory result it gives. It is always out the coldest morning.

Even Heat Day and Night—Fire Never Out

Cole's Hot Blast is so perfect in construction that fire will keep all night, and when the draft is opened in the morning will burn two or three hours with the fuel put in the night before. No other stove does this. Fire, therefore, never goes out, and the rooms are kept at an even temperature all the time. Burns hard coal, soft coal, slack, lignite or wood.

OUR GUARANTEE

- 1—We guarantee a saving of one-third in fuel over any lower draft stove of the same size, with soft coal or slack.
- 2—We guarantee Cole's Hot Blast to use less hard coal for heating a given space than any lower burner made with same heated surface.
- 3—We guarantee that the rooms can be heated from one to two hours each morning, with the soft coal or hard coal put in the stove the evening before.
- 4—We guarantee that the stove will hold fire with soft coal 3 hours without attention.
- 5—We guarantee a uniform heat day and night, with soft coal, hard coal or lignite.
- 6—We guarantee every stove to remain absolutely air-tight as long as used.
- 7—We guarantee the feed door to be smoke and dust proof.

The above guarantee is made with the understanding that the stove be operated according to directions, and set up with a good fire.

For Hard Coal—Saves Half

The extent of unburned gases in hard coal is shown by opening the magazine cover of a base burner when the extra oxygen supplied fills the entire stove with flaming gas.

The fact that no stove putty is used to make air-leaking joints, gives you perfect control over the drafts on Cole's Hot Blast. The slow, economical combustion, and the large, positive radiating surface make it the greatest fuel-saving, hard coal stove made.

Would You Lose $50.00 in Fuel to Save $1.00 on the Cost of Your Stove?

That is what you do when you buy a cheaply constructed, putty jointed, showy made imitation stove. Like all successful inventions, Cole's Original Hot Blast has many inferior imitations, avoid them. They all lack the patented features and careful construction, which make the Original Hot Blast a great success. They do not stay tight, and soon open seams and cracks which render them worthless as fire keepers. See the name "Cole's Hot Blast from Chicago" on the feed door. None genuine without it.

SUBMARINE BOAT DOES NOT COME UP

Crew of Fourteen of The Lutin Are Drowned.

Plugging Experiment Off Coast of Tunis Results Disastrously to Sailors.

BELONGED TO NAVY OF FRANCE.

Paris, Oct. 17.—M. Thomson, minister of marine, has received an official dispatch from the naval commandant at Biserta confirming the sinking of the submarine, Lutin.

Biserta, Tunis, Oct. 17.—The French submarine Lutin left this port this morning for plugging experiments. Signals were received at 11 o'clock which reported her disappearance. Two torpedo boats and three tugs have gone in search of the submarine.

It appears almost certain that the crew of the Lutin has suffered a fate similar to that which overtook the crew of the submarine Faradet here last year. The crew of the Lutin numbered 14 men under the command of Lieutenant Phoebe.

Admiral Bellue, commander of the Tunis naval division, who went out on board a tug returned late today and said that owing to the heavy seas and obscurity it was impossible to continue the salvage operations until dawn. The tugs and torpedo boats, however, will remain near the place where the Lutin made her plunge throughout the night.

"Didn't you say that the bosses must go?" "I did." "And here you are setting yourself up as a boss?" "Certainly. Why did you suppose I wanted the other fellows to go?"

I have just gotten back from a three months' trip in the west, in the interest of my company.

Just before I left I talked to three men, who have since died. Each one of them was in "good health" — didn't even "feel bad."

One man was busy and asked me to "call again."

Another was busy and asked me to "call Saturday."

Another said he "was not ready."

Most men like to put off the thought of taking life insurance, but when cases of this kind are brought home to them they should sit right down and think—think of the uncertainty of life, the certainty of death and their sacred duty to their families.

I am in position to offer you Life Insurance of a high class at lower rates than other companies charge for "straight life." If you want to consider protection for your family, just call me up or drop me a line.

I promise not to bore you, for my time is as valuable as yours.

Paducah	11.8	1.2 fall

All the boats now are complaining of the muddy banks left by the falling rivers. It is extremely difficult to load freight when walking over the slippery banks. The river fell 1.2 in the last 24 hours. The stage this morning is 11.8. Cloudy weather suggests more rain. Business at the wharf was better than yesterday.

In the absence of any word to the contrary, it is supposed that the Georgia Lee will leave Memphis today on the first trip in the Cincinnati-Memphis trade since spring.

The Butterff arrived last night from Clarksville and left today at noon for Nashville.

The Henry Harley was the Evansville packet today. The Dunbar arrived yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

The Clyde is receiving freight today for the up trip to the Tennessee river this evening at 6 o'clock.

Six tardy passengers for the Dick Fowler arrived after the boat had started this morning, but by crossing the deck of the Clyde they managed to board the Dick Fowler with the aid of the rousters who threw out a plank. The boat hardly stopped during this operation, and Captain Bewley on the roof of the cabin, grimly but unmoved waved the pilot onward.

The Scotia backed up to the wharf at right angles this morning to receive the wheel shaft and the frame work on the shaft will be built on the boat.

The City of Saltville probably will leave St. Louis Thursday evening for the Tennessee river.

The towboat Raymond Horner, belonging to the combine, was wrecked near Parkersburg, W. Va., last night by running into a cable stretched across the Ohio river at Lock 18. The pilot house and everything on the hurricane deck were swept into the river. Pilot Howard Crawford of Pittsburg, was drowned. Capt. Dippold and Pilot Boier were badly injured. The boat caught fire and a panic followed until Fireman Keenan pulled a gun on the boat's employees and compelled them to fight the flames with the extinguishers. This had the desired effect, and the flames were soon under control. The Horner was on her way to Middleport, O., for empty barges. Crawford's body has not been recovered.

Pittsburg rivermen have won a victory in their fight against low bridges as the secretary of war has declared the bridge spanning the Monongahela river at Monongahela City to be an obstruction to navigation. Major W. L. Sibert received an order from the war department instructing him to issue orders for the raising of the bridge. Several hearings were had on the question and the county commissions of Allegheny and Washington counties fought the project, as the bridge had only been recently purchased from a corporation.

Official Forecasts.

The Ohio at Evansville and Mt. Vernon, not much change during the next 24 to 36 hours. At Paducah and Cairo, will continue falling during the next several days. The fall at Cairo during the next 12 hours will amount to a little over one foot.

The Tennessee from Florence to the mouth, and the Mississippi from Chester to below Cairo, will continue falling.

RABBIT HUNT ON BROADWAY.

Crowd Chases Bunnie Out of Government Lawn.

A rabbit was the object of a merry chase at the postoffice this morning at 8 o'clock, and within five minutes after the rabbit had been "flushed" Fifth street was lined with over a hundred spectators. The rabbit was snugly nestled in the long grass bordering the roadway when a mail carrier frightened him. The carrier started in pursuit. A physician of hunting fame, joined in the chase. Next came a bootblack, a newsboy and with each bound of the rabbit the number of pursuers increased. They surrounded him and the fugitive was caught by Will Davis, colored, a clothes presser.

Beware of the Physic You Take!

A physic often does more harm than good. It is not so much the physic, though, as it is the class of physic you take.

Most preparations sold as laxatives and cathartics are dangerous. They do accomplish what they are advertised to do—move the bowels—but they entirely upset the stomach, and often produce complications.

These preparations in the form of tablets and pills, usually gripe, cause nausea, and once you begin taking them a dangerous "physic habit" is formed. The bowels soon become unable to perform their functions without the unnatural aid of the "tablet," just like some people find it impossible to sleep without taking "sleeping powders."

A safe remedy for all stomach disorders is

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin

It never creates a "habit." It does not operate on the stomach and bowels as most remedies do. The pepsin contained in it is a great digester. It quickly relieves the distress of indigestion, without any of the dangers which come with the use of soda.

As a laxative it produces quick and pleasant results. No stomach is too weak to be benefited by it; no condition is beyond its power to cure. All druggists sell Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin at 50c and $1.00.

Your money back if it doesn't benefit you.

SETTLEMENT DESIRABLE.

It seems the rational thing for the general council to invest City Solicitor Campbell with authority to negotiate with the attorney for the East Tennessee Telephone company for a settlement of the misunderstanding existing between the city and the company. Business concerns and even nations when they wish to treat on any matter, usually delegate one man on each side to carry on the negotiations. It is self-evident and experience proven that two men can come to an understanding quicker than can half a dozen with varying temperaments, bent of mind and personalities. Although the differences between the corporation and the city are of long standing, there is only the question of 1,000 subscribers actually preventing the issuance of a franchise to the telephone company. When the committee of the general council took up the matter with representatives of the company, the council insisted that the terms of the franchise should become operative as to rates when the company should have 4,000 subscribers. The company insisted that the number be 3,000. That was the only barrier to the consummation of the agreement, and it is reasonable to suppose that had it been left to one man for each side, they would quickly have come to terms. The company has for years been operating under an old grant from the state, and the city has been insisting that a franchise should be secured by the company. This proposition readily was assented to, but the terms concerning rates based on the number of subscribers naturally brought about some haggling. The city in its dealing should always take the business course, save where its sovereignty is at stake. Solicitor Campbell urges a settlement on the ground that even if the city wins in a prolonged law suit, it will be out there having gone to Murray to visit, thousands of dollars, without gaining any material reward from its victory. He further promises to see that the city's interests are protected in the compromise. No one in the general council seems to fear the solicitor's honesty when he asserts that he is doing this only because he sees in it the single chance for a settlement of this grievous difference. He would not likely assume such a responsibility voluntarily without some weighty reason. The proposal is worth a trial.

Memphians were always known to be thrifty, but the city lays claim to some sporting blood. One of her well known rounders seems to have got the two elements mixed in his composition, and in a spirit of magnanimity, just to make a poor little chorus girl have a good time and always think well of Memphis, he let her have his diamonds to play with until she left town. The company started south and the jewels started with it and got as far as Nashville. He had the naughty coryphæe arrested for breach of trust and, it is said, recovered one of his diamonds. Fickle little dancers, who have been used to no one more sophisticated than the easy marks of New York and Pittsburgh, will have to inform themselves that Memphis sports know a thing or two, and don't let their jewelry go any farther than their affections.

Governor Beckham boasts that the Democratic state primary is held a year before the election so that the people will have plenty of time to meditate and not be taken by surprise with a snap nomination. On the gloomy other hand, Senator McCreary forebodes the factional split of twelve months will jeopardize the chances of Democratic success. Maybe they are both right.

O, well, if the "Recollections" published by young Prince Alexander Von Hohenlohe proves a good seller, he can afford to bear the displeasure of the emperor. In fact, if he had a Yankee publisher, we would suspect some advertising design in the royal snub.

We observe that the Paris mob, which exhibited its displeasure with the races so candidly Sunday, robbed the bookmakers before it turned its attention to any other features of the course.

That Broken Marriage Bell club recently organized in New York should have a Co-respondent Ladies' Auxiliary affiliated with it in order to make it thoroughly congenial.

A special from Nashville states that a horse worth $5,000 was stolen from Barnum & Bailey's circus. Why don't they search the press agent?

Gompers, like many another valiant but indiscreet warrior, probably will brave the Cannon's mouth but once.

We hope we may get some German maids as thrifty as Bertha Krupp to join our band of immigrants.

No news is not good news to the friends of Polar Explorer Perry.

LEEPER DROPPED DEAD.
Wrestling in Livery Stable When Summons Came.

George Leeper, colored, 50 years old, dropped dead in the door of Charlie Clark's livery stable, 215 South Third street, yesterday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock. He was employed as a buggy washer and general handy man about the place. Leeper had been a hard drinker. At the door he engaged in a political argument with Mike Brunson and several other employees of the stable. Leeper playfully struck at Brunson who caught him by the arm. As he did so Leeper jumped back and sank towards the ground. He remained in a sitting posture until taken into the office where he expired. Death came within three minutes. Leeper lived at the stable and had been employed there about three years.

This morning Fred Roth, acting for Coroner Frank Eaker, held an investigation and determined death to have come from heart trouble. The body will be buried today in Oak Grove cemetery.

CONSTABLES

Climbed on Pay Car of Illinois Central Yesterday.

"When I come to Paducah next month I think I shall just turn over my Paducah employees' checks to you," Paymaster Newell, of the Illinois Central, stated to Magistrate Charles W. Emery last night. The remark was made in jest, but if conditions are not bettered the joke may materialize in a measure. Yesterday when the pay car rolled into Paducah the constables climbed aboard and began serving processes on the paymaster, attaching wages of railroad men. Every magistrate was represented. Magistrate Emery had 60 attachments against the pay car yesterday.

CREDITORS MEET

NOVEMBER FIRST

Referee E. W. Bagby Fixes Date For Them.

First Judgment Agreed on in Suits Against E. Rehkopf Saddlery Company.

NEWS FROM THE COURT HOUSE.

Creditors of the E. Rehkopf Saddlery company, now in the bankruptcy court, will meet November 1 to choose a trustee. Referee E. W. Bagby today announced he had set this date.

Today a duplicate of the schedule of liabilities and assets of the bankrupt firm of E. Rehkopf Saddlery company, which was filed in the state court in the matter of the E. Rehkopf Saddlery company, litigation came this morning. It is practically a judgment against the firm, not the individuals, E. Rehkopf and John Rehkopf and others, for the total of $11,875.

Attorney John G. Miller, representing the plaintiffs, made a motion to take the petitions as confessed in the suits of Gray & Dudley, for $350; B. A. James Manufacturing company, for $525, and James Salen, executor, for $11,000 against the E. Rehkopf Saddlery company. The court sustained the motion. The judgment will be filed tomorrow.

County Court.

This afternoon County Judge R. T. Lightfoot is trying the case of L. P. Harris, administrator of J. H. Price, against J. B. Harper for the possession of nine cows.

Deeds Filed.

Albert P. Miles to Sidney Hughes, property in the county, $1,175.
C. A. Smith and others to W. A. Berry, power of attorney.

Court Notes.

The final dividend from the bankrupt estate of James W. Sellers was ordered by the trustee, Cecil Reed, yesterday.
J. P. O'Meara, of Elizabethtown, Ky., was sworn in to practice at the McCracken circuit bar.

In the case of J. T. Reddick against S. C. Vaughan and others, the judgment was set aside.

Judge Reed spent the greater part of the morning in settling cases and disposing of demurrers and minor matters preliminary to the hearing of actions.

How the Blood Flow Affects Health.
Few people appreciate the necessity of keeping the blood in every way in good condition if they would have good health.

There are two factors in disease, which, by an endless variety of changes and combinations define every departure from normal conditions.

These are the BLOOD and the NERVES. They sustain life, and END IT.

The blood must maintain a steady, swift and equal flow or bad consequences follow. Every organ and tissue must get its right share of blood, no more, no less. Stop it and the system is soon poisoned with accumulated body sewage, and lack of proper nourishment sets up, headaches, tired, worn-out sensations, no life, no energy and other kindred ailments follow.

Right the blood flow, and they all leave.
This is the Osteopathic theory. It merely goes back to the beginning of disease. It finds most disease is associated with an abnormal blood flow.

Especially during the fall and winter months it is necessary to keep the blood flow right. Exercise of the right sort is a good stimulant for circulation, but the dry hot air treatment, followed by the Osteopathic treatments, which I am giving with such marked good results, is the best treatment yet discovered.

Why? Simply because they go to the basis.
Come to see me at any time and I can easily satisfy you that I can soon build up the run-down system, while you are attending to your usual duties. I shall, too, be pleased to refer you to people you know well who are enthusiastic in their praises of the treatments.

My office hours are from 8 to 12 a. m. and 2 to 4 p. m.

PRINCETON CURATOR ENDS LIFE

Professor's Aid Takes Poison Because of Domestic Trouble.

Princeton, N. J., Oct. 17.—Jacob Geismar, curator of the geological laboratory of Princeton University and an assistant to Professor W. B. Scott, swallowed a quantity of cyanide of potassium today and died twenty minutes later. He was 60 years old and came to this country from Germany twenty years ago. Domestic trouble is given as the cause of the suicide.

FIVE AND COSTS

ASSESSED AGAINST COUNTY JUDGE LIGHTFOOT.

Looked Just Like Any Other Citizen Before the Ordinance Court—Horse Loose.

The name of R. T. Lightfoot, no other personage than the honorable county judge, was entered on the police court docket this morning, and directly opposite it was written "5 and costs," and it is all on account of a loose stable door.

Judge Lightfoot's horse was found roaming about Lang park Monday night and brought to the city pound by Cow Policeman Lycurgus Rice. The identity of the owner was established and a warrant followed. The defendant made no fight but stated he noticed that others had stock roving about.

"I informed Mr. Rice that he must bring up all stock found running at large, and that I intended to try all cases; to treat them all alike," Police Judge Puryear declared.

Other cases: Kenney Murray breach of peace dismissed; Tom Clark, drunkenness, $1 and costs; Lillie Gray, colored, malicious cutting, continued; William Doyle, drunkenness, $1 and costs; Alice Perkins, colored, drunkenness, $1 and costs.

Sues Hill for $10,000,000.

New York, Oct. 17.—Action to compel the restitution of more than $10,000,000 by J. J. Hill, alleged to be wrongful profit secured by him in the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy deal, was begun today in the United States district court by Clarence Venner, who claims to hold 300 shares of Great Northern stock. The action is against the Great Northern Railway company and J. J. Hill as president and director.

"Real Love Letters of a Real Girl"

"I am not going to beat the big drum of sentiment and make a wall-of-noise. Nothing is so dead as a dead infatuation. The more a person has been infatuated, the more he resents an attempt to galvanize the dull, dead thing into life. I am wise, you see, to the end. And reasonable, too, I hope. And brave. And brave, I tell you. Do you think I will be a coward, and cry out? I make you a present of everything of the love and happy thoughts, of the pleasant dreams and plans, of the little prayers sent up, and the blessings called down—there were a great many every day—of the kisses, and all the dear sweetness. Take it all. I want nothing from you in return. But do you suppose that, having given you all this, I am going to give you my soul as well? To moan my life away, my beautiful life? You are not worth it. You are not worth anything, hardly. You are unstable, invertebrate. My life shall be splendid in spite of you. You shall not cheat me of one single chance of heaven."—(From Fraulein Schmidt and Mr. Anstruther in the November Delineator.)

A good number of would-be cures were tried but they did not apparently relieve the trouble. We noticed an advertisement about Doan's Kidney Pills and sent to Alvey & List's drug store and got a box. The pills were used and found to do all that is claimed for them, and we can endorse this remedy to anyone who is a sufferer from kidney trouble for we have great confidence in its merits."

Supr. Billington All Right.

"Who's dead in Superintendent Billington's family?" was the startling question going the rounds in the court house. No one knew, but some one had seen crepe on the door and this was evidence enough. The "crepe" proved to be an inoffensive black mail box which the superintendent had just nailed to his door and over it he had placed a small white card telling that he was out of the city for the day. Glancing up from the ground floor to his office door above, the card and mail box presents the appearance of crepe unless minutely studied.

Roy Smith Claims That Brother's Paper Will Be Honored and Is Given Time.

Louisville, Oct. 17.—William Daugherty, one of the directors of the Boston Banking company, said last night that payment on about $7,000 of the new paper issued by the Smiths had been refused.

"Paper representing about $4,500, issued by C. A. Smith, father of W. B. Smith, has been honored," he said, "but the new paper issued by W. B. Smith has been dishonored," he said.

Roy Smith, who was cashier of the Boston Banking company, and who cashed drafts in the interest of his brother, W. B. Smith, for $11,500, is still in Boston. According to Mr. Daugherty, Roy Smith continues to maintain that the money he paid out of the bank's funds on his brother's drafts will be made good. He has declared from the first that there was no intention of wrongdoing on his part when he cashed the drafts.

"I don't know just what will be done," Mr. Daugherty said. "We are giving the Smiths a little more time in which to make good the amount paid out on the paper issued by W. B. Smith. It may be that an eastern bonding company that went the bond of Roy Smith, our former cashier, will be called upon to make good the $7,000 still outstanding. In any event, the bank's depositors will be protected, no matter what the outcome may be."

MORE YARDS

WILL BE ADVOCATED FOR PADUCAH THIS YEAR.

Officials of Southern Lines of Illinois Central Are Meeting in Memphis.

A meeting of officials of southern lines of the Illinois Central is on at Memphis and Master Mechanic R. J. Turnbull, of Paducah, Supt. A. H. Egan and Roadmaster F. L. Thompson, Louisville, are the officers in attendance from the Louisville division. The purpose of the conference is to discuss power, track and the business of the southern lines.

The officials will also look into the needs of southern lines. This is the season for suggesting improvements in Chicago, where the annual appropriation is settled on.

Local Business Increases. Local business has increased on the Illinois Central in the past five years. One evident need is more yard space. This is one item to be set out in the figures for the Paducah appropriation.

A MOST WORTHY ARTICLE. When an article has been on the market for a long time, it is a sign that it is a worthy one. Such is Ballard's Household Syrup. It cures Coughs and all Pulmonary Diseases. One of the best known merchants in Mobile, Ala., says: "For 25 years my family has not been troubled with the winter coughs. We owe this to Ballard's Household Syrup. I know it has saved my children from many sick spells."

American Cousin—"I reckon the sons of some of our millionaires have a pretty hard problem to solve when they can't decide whether to go into business and live up to their father's reputations, or go into society, and live them down."—Punch.

LET WE Forget—Baby is restless, can't sleep at night, won't eat, cries spasmodically. A bottle of White's Cream Vermifuge never fails to cure it. Every mother should give her baby White's Cream Vermifuge. So many times when the baby is pale and fretful the mother does not know what to do. A bottle of this medicine would bring color to his cheeks and laughter to his eyes. Give it a trial.

Inquisitive—"If, as you say, you know this man to be a rake, why did you invite him to your house?" Henpeck—"Heavens! man, I never dreamed he would elope with my daughter; I thought he would carry off my wife."

NAPOLEON BONAPARTE. Showed at the battle of Austerlitz, he was the greatest leader in the world. Ballard's Snow Liniment has shown the public it is the best Liniment in the world. A quick cure for Rheumatism, Sprains, Burns, Cuts, etc. A. C. Pitzer, Paducah, La., says: "I use Ballard's Snow Liniment in my family and find it unequalled for sore chest, headache, corns, in fact for anything that can be reached by a liniment."

"With all your wealth are you not afraid of the poltergeist?" asked the deliver in sociological problems. "No, I ain't," snapped Mr. Newrich. "We boil all our drinking water."—Phila. delphia Record.

WITH BLACK HAND

MATE THREATENED

Because He Kept Gypsies Out Of The Cabin.

Many Bands on River Now Add Picturesque Color to Scenes at the Wharf Boat.

CHILDREN ARE INNUMERABLE

Because he would not allow a band of gypsy stevedores passengers to ride in the cabin, Frank Kennedy, mate on the steamer Dunbar was threatened with the "Black Hand." Despite this dire threat—a threat which in the eastern cities means almost sure death—Kennedy compelled the gypsies to go below.

The "Black Hand" is a secret order originating in Italy and common among all southern peoples. Its insignia is a hand holding a stiletto. In New Orleans and New York it is the bane of the police force, who persistently hear of mysterious murders openly attributed to this dread organization.

The band of gypsies that came down on the Dunbar yesterday are natives of Mexico. They got off at this place and pitched their camp at the head of the wharf. More are expected today or tomorrow.

Altogether the most picturesque incident at the wharfbank in many months, was a band of gypsies leaving for Cairo this morning on the Dick Fowler. They had five wagons and eight fine horses. There were ten adults and literally innumerable children.

Before a curious crowd of cosmopolitan character, the gypsies rose from their pallets on the ground and the women dressed unconcernedly before the interested spectators. They had slept in part of their garments. A hastily prepared breakfast was eaten and they moved down the wharf to the Dick Fowler.

Their clothes were gorgeous in their color effects, the typical gypsy style being carried out. Purple, yellow, red and other colors which attract the uninitiated eye, were conspicuous. The women had their hair plaited with Mexican dollars and strings of curiously made beads adorned their necks and wrists.

While the men saw to the loading of the outfit, the women rolled cigarettes and jabbered among themselves. The children, actually innumerable to the spectator, did about as other children would do—some played, some munched great hunks of bread and others cried. The only man among them who could speak English was asked how many children there were. With a shrug of the shoulders and lifted eyebrows he said, with surprise at the question, "Oh, I don't know." He probably didn't.

We have read of the shrug of the shoulders in novels, and have pictured in the imagination what it was like, but a practical demonstration was given by these Mexican gypsies this morning. The novelist has not over duly drawn on his imagination in describing its expressiveness. The Mexicans use their whole upper body to talk.

This band is on its way to Cairo to join another band there. They came from Evansville and another band will come down today or tomorrow. The whole party then will go south.

Two of the gypsy women who remained in the city to meet the others who will arrive today, went up and down Broadway this morning telling the fortunes of all who would submit. They charged 25 cents. When they entered an office building, they inquired particularly if any "cops" were in the building. Receiving a favorable answer, they entered. Satisfaction with their ability to read the palm was expressed by some.

CRISIS OF GIRLHOOD

A TIME OF PAIN AND PERIL

Miss Emma Cole Says that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has Saved Her Life and Made Her Well.

How many lives of beautiful young girls have been sacrificed just as they were ripening into womanhood! How many irregularities or displacements have been developed at this important period, resulting in years of suffering!

A mother should come to her child's aid at this critical time and remember that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will prepare the system for the coming change and start this trying period in a young girl's life without pain or irregularities.

Miss Emma Cole of Tallahoma, Tenn., writes:

"I want to tell you that I am enjoying better health than I have for years, and I owe it to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."

"When fourteen years of age I suffered almost constant pain, and for two or three years I had nervous and pain in my side, headaches and was dizzy and nervous, and doctors all failed to help me."

"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended, and after taking it my health began to improve rapidly, and I think it saved my life. I sincerely hope my experience will be a help to other girls who are passing from girlhood to womanhood, for I know your Compound will do as much for them."

If you know of any young girl who is sick and needs motherly advice ask her to write Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., and she will receive free advice which will put her on the right road to a strong, healthy and happy womanhood. Mrs. Pinkham is daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham and for twenty-five years has been advising sick women free of charge.

It was a new voice, which Meredith had not heard before. When they shouted to announce their arrival it was suddenly hushed, and presently Durnovo came forward to greet them.

Meredith hardly knew him, he was so much stronger and healthier in appearance. Durnovo shook hands heartily.

"No need to introduce you two," he said, looking from one to the other.

"No; after one mistake we discovered each other's identity in the forest," answered Meredith.

Durnovo smiled, but there was something behind the smile. He did not seem to approve of their meeting without his intervention.

The three men walked up toward the house together. It was a fair sized house, with a heavy thatched roof that overhung the walls like the crown of a mushroom. The walls were only mud, and the thatching was nothing else than banana leaves, but there was evidence of European taste in the garden surrounding the structure and in the glazed windows and wooden door.

As they approached the open doorway three little children, clad in very little more than their native modesty, ran gleefully out and proceeded to engage seats on Jack Meredith's boots, looking upon him as a mere public conveyance. They took hardly any notice of him, but chattered and quarreled among themselves, sometimes in baby English, sometimes in dialect unknown to Meredith.

"These," said the latter, when they were seated and clinging with their little dusky arms round his legs, "are the very funniest little kids I ever came across."

Durnovo gave an impatient laugh and went on toward the house. But Guy Oscar stopped and walked carefully beside Meredith as he labored along heavily footed.

"They are the loveliest little souls imaginable," continued Jack Meredith. "There," he said to them, "when they had reached the doorsteps, 'run away to you mother—very fine ride—no, no more tonight! I'm weary, you understand, weary!'"

"Awful, awe-e-eary," repeated the little things, standing before him in infantile rude roundness, looking up with bright eyes.

"Awful, that is it. Good night. Give me good night, most stout Nestor!"

He stopped and gravely shook hands with each one in turn, and after forcing a like ceremonial upon Guy Oscar, they reluctantly withdrew.

"They have not joined us, I suppose," said Oscar as he followed his companion into the house.

"Not yet. They live in this place. Nestorists. I understand, takes care of his mother, who in her turn takes care of this house. He is one and a half."

Guy Oscar seemed to have inherited the mind inquisitiveness from his learned father. He asked another question later on.

"Who is that woman?" he said during dinner, with a little nod toward the doorway through which the object of his curiosity had passed with some plates.

"That is the mother of the stout Nestorists," answered Jack—Durnovo's housekeeper.

He spoke quietly, looking straight in front of him, and Joseph, who was drawing a cork at the back of the room, was watching his face.

There was a little pause, during which Durnovo drank slowly. Then Guy Oscar spoke again.

"If she cooked the dinner," he said, "she knows her business."

"Yes," answered Durnovo, "she is a good cook. If she is nothing else."

It did not sound as if further inquiries would be welcome, and so the subject was dropped with a silent tribute to the culinary powers of Durnovo's housekeeper at the M-sala station.

The woman had only appeared for a moment, bringing in some dishes for Joseph—a tall, stately woman, with great dark eyes, in which the patience of motherhood had succeeded to the soft fire of West Indian love and youth.

She had the graceful slow carriage of the creole, although her skin was darker than that of those dangerous sirens.

"They call me," she had said to Jack Meredith in her soft, mumbled English a fortnight earlier, "they call me Marie."

The children he had named after his own fantasy, and when she had once seen him with them there was a notable change in her manner. Her eyes rested on him with a sort of wondering attention, and when she cooked his meals or touched anything that was his there was something in her attitude that denoted special care.

Joseph called her "Missis," with a sort of friendliness in his voice which never rose to badinage nor descended to familiarity.

The man who had found the simlacine was eager, restless, full of suspicion. To the others the scheme obviously presented itself in a different light. Jack Meredith was diffident, light hearted and unsuspicious. It was impossible to arouse any enthusiasm in him to make him take it seriously.

Guy Oscar was gravely indifferent. He wanted to get rid of a certain space of time, and the African forest, containing as it did the only excitement he had ever known, was as good a place as any. The simlacine was in his mind, relegated to a distant place behind weeks of sport and adventure such as his soul loved.

"You men," said Durnovo eagerly, "don't seem to take the thing seriously."

"I," answered Meredith, "intend, at all events, to take the profits very seriously. When they begin to come in, J. Meredith will be at the above address, and trusts by a careful attention to business to merit a continuance of your kind patronage."

Durnovo laughed somewhat nervously. Oscar did not seem to hear.

"It is all very well for you," said the half caste in a lower voice. "You have not so much at stake. It is likely that the happiness of my whole life depends upon this venture."

A curious smile passed across Jack Meredith's face. Without turning his head he glanced sideways into Durnovo's face through the gloom. But he said nothing, and it was Oscar who broke the silence by saying simply:

"The same may possibly apply to me."

There was a little pause, during which he lighted his pipe.

It did not seem to occur to any of them that the only person whose individuality was still vividly happened to be Jack Meredith. He alone had said nothing. He it was who spoke first, after a proper period of silence.

"It seems to me," he said, "that we have all the technicalities arranged now. So far as the working of the expedition is concerned we know our places, and the difficulties will be met as they present themselves. But there is one thing which I think we should set in order now. I have been thinking about it while I have been waiting here alone."

The glow of Victor Durnovo's clear dried away as if in his attention he was forgetting to smoke; but he said nothing.

"It seems to me," Jack went on, "that before we leave here we should draw up and sign a sort of deed of partnership. Of course we trust each other perfectly—there is no question of that. But life is an uncertain thing, as some earlier philosopher said before me; and one never knows what may happen. I have drawn up a paper in triplicate. If you have a match I will read it to you."

Oscar produced a match and, striking it on his boot, sheltered it with the hollow of his hand while Jack read:

"We, the undersigned, hereby enter into partnership to search for and sell our mutual profit the herb known as simlacine, the profits to be divided into three equal portions, after the deduction of one-hundredth part to be handed to the servant, Joseph Atkinson. Any further expenses that may be incurred to be borne in the same proportion as the original expenses of the expedition—namely, two-fifths to be paid by Guy Cranmer Oscar, two-fifths by John Meredith, one-fifth by Victor Durnovo."

"The sum of $50 per month to be paid to Victor Durnovo, whereof he may pay the thirty special men taken from his estate and headquarters at M-sala to cultivate the simlacine, and such corn and vegetables as may be required for the sustenance of the expedition; these men to act as porters until the plateau be reached."

"The opinion of two of the three leaders against one to be accepted unconditionally in all questions where controversy may arise. In case of death of any of the partners hereby to hand over to the executor of the dead partner or partners such moneys as shall belong to him or them."

At this juncture there was a little pause while Guy Oscar lighted a second match.

"And," continued Jack, "we hereby undertake severally on oath to hold the secret of the whereabouts of the simlacine a strict secret, which secret may not be revealed by any one of us, to whomsoever it may be, without the sanction, in writing, of the other two partners."

"There," concluded Jack Meredith, "I am rather pleased with that literary production. It is forcible and yet devoid of violence. I feel that in me the commerce of the century has lost an ornament. Moreover, I am ready to swear to the terms of the agreement."

There was a little pause. Guy Oscar took his pipe from his mouth, and while he knocked the ashes out against the leg of his chair he mumbled, "I swear to hold to that agreement."

Victor Durnovo took off his hat with a sweep and a flourish, and raising his bare brow to the stars, he said: "I swear to hold to that agreement. If I fail, may God strike me dead!"

CHAPTER XI.

THE next morning Jack Meredith never rose to badinage nor descended to familiarity.

"Woke you before yer time, air," he said. "There's something wrong among these 'ere darky fellers, air."

"Not rebellion?" he said curtly, looking toward his firearms.

"No, sir, not that. It's some mortal sickness. I don't know what it is. I've been up half the night with it. It's spreading too."

"Sickness! What does it seem like? Just give me that jacket. Not that sleeping sickness?"

Theatrical Notes

KENTUCKY THIS WEEK.

Tonight—Tim Murphy in "Old Innocence."

Saturday Matinee and Night—Jane Kennark in "The Toast of the Town."

Old Innocence.

Tim Murphy, Dorothy Sherrod, and a most capable company comes to The Kentucky tonight when they will present their successful comedy of some seasons ago "Old Innocence," the piece in which both these clever players have earned unusual distinction. "Old Innocence" is one of the most entertaining plays Tim Murphy has had and the character of Jason Green one of the most fitting characters he has yet impersonated. It gives him every occasion for the expression of his many characteristics and reveals him in exactly the class of work for which he is noted as the part calls for simplicity, kindness and gentleness each of which Tim Murphy is without question a past master at depicting. His portrayal of "Jason Green" in this comedy was always a superior one and as each season adds to the development of an artist of his ability undoubtedly his return to the role will show him in a more artistic light even than heretofore.

Stock Company.

Manager Roberts, of The Kentucky announces for one week starting Monday, the DePew-Burdette Stock company in repertoire at popular prices with ladies free Monday night under the usual conditions if seats are reserved before 6 p. m. of that day. The entire company composing the Messrs. DePew and Burdette support which is one of the largest stock organizations on tour this season, has been selected with great care and consideration. Numerous players of recognized superiority are included in the cast which offers further assurance of thoroughly enjoyable performances. A different play will be presented each night and polite vaudeville will take up the time between the acts.

A Night's Diversion.

While Simple Simon Simple will not take rank with the highest class of comic opera, and perhaps will never enjoy the vogue of "Buster Brown" by reason of the winsomeness of that humorous young gentleman, yet the piece serves well for an evening's diversion, and no one who laughs at the foolishness of Simon and the incongruous Mose has cause to kick himself afterwards. To employ a phrase adapted from reviews of dramatized novels, the situations follow closely the original text. In other words, the idea of the creator is to present a series of scenes resembling the pictures in the comic supplement and he succeeds in winning many a laugh by the same surprising and ridiculous methods. In the hands of a less capable company than that in Paducah last night Simple Simon Simple would be a pitiful spectacle. The music is neither of high order, or catchy, but it is not displeasing. A large and good looking chorus is used to an advantage and the principals do clever specialties that help out the three acts. Elongated William Welp, as Simon and the talented dwarf, Jerry D. Sullivan, as Mose, compose a picture to laugh over. A male quartette plays an important part in the singing.

Jane Kennark.

Jane Kennark is announced to appear at The Kentucky Saturday, matinee and night in "The Toast of the Town," Viola Allen's success last season by Clyde Fitch. It is said Miss Kennark has been surrounded by a well balanced company including Carl Anthony, who will play opposite her characterization of Betty Singleton. Before beginning his theatrical work, Mr. Anthony was engaged in the newspaper business, being on the staff of the New York Dramatic Mirror for several years. Soon after leaving the newspaper field he wrote and produced "In the Valley of the Genesee," which proved a success. In the season of 1901-02 he originated the title role in "The Village Parson," having been associated with Creston Clarke in Shakespearean repertoire previous to that time. At times he has been engaged in stock work. For three seasons he was with Bertha Galland in "Dorothy Vernon of Haddon Hall" and originated the character role of the president of the United States in "On-Satan's Mount." He was later understudy to Loraine in "Man and Superman" and was with Otis Skinner in "The Duel." He has been associated with the following stars: Fay Davis, Bertha Galland, Clara Bloodgood, Otis Skinner, Robert Loraine, Creston Clarke and Orin Johnson. He is an actor of considerable versatility and has made a hit as the Duke of Malmesbury in "The Toast of the Town."
